Excellent investment opportunity or owner-occupant option, this 3-bedroom, 1.5-bath single-family home is currently operating as a rental. The functional floor plan and tenant-friendly features include a large, private backyard and a covered back porch that expands usable living space. A detached storage garage adds value and convenience, while the home's privacy and outdoor space appeal to both homeowners and renters. This property is well-suited for first-time homebuyers looking to add their own personal touch, or investors seeking a stable rental with strong appeal and future upside.
